

Service Opportunities at Feed My Starving Children Facilities

For those people ages 8-adult who are looking for a way to serve others, please consider giving your time and energy at a Feed My Starving Children facility. There you will manually package dehydrated meals that are shipped to hungry children in orphanages, schools and clinics around the world. It's easy and rewarding. Look through the nine month schedule and pick out some dates that work for you. Each month you will have an
