ABOUT THE CAMP

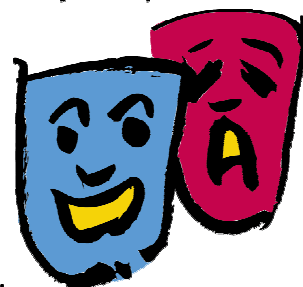

The Living Hope Lutheran Church drama camp philosophy is to provide fun, educational, performing arts enrichment programs while offering safe, Christian fellowship. We want your child to further their enrichment in the area of performing arts while meeting new friends and having FUN!!

Drama Camp 2009 at Living Hope Lutheran Church is an opportunity for young performers to soar to new heights both on stage and in life. The camp aims to promote Christian fellowship while providing performing arts enrichment programs that are both fun and educational.

To follow up last year's amazing musical performance, we are going to feature both choreographed musical settings along with fast-paced and fully one-act plays based on Biblical stories written by Bethany Lutheran College professor Peter Bloedel. There is truly something for everyone at LH Drama Camp '09!

Our youth minister, Kory Henkel, will be director of the camp, feel free to contact him at 952-888-2475 with any questions. Assisting Kory will be various individuals with several years of performing arts and directing experience.
